

Curriculum Vitae Marco Musso

Marco Musso, born in 1992, is known as one of the purest and most interesting talents of his generation.

He caught the attention of the public gaining over ten first prizes in national and international competitions. Among these: National Competition "G. Rossini" (2013), International Competition "Città di Piombino", the "International Guitar Competition José Thomas - Villa de Petrer , cat. juvenil" in Spain (2014), the "28th European Music Competition" in Moncalieri - Italy, and the International Competition of Versoix, Switzerland.

Despite his young age he held concerts all among Europe, in Spain, Switzerland, France, United Kingdom, Ireland, Austria and Italy.

In August 2015 Marco Musso was invited to take part in the "International Classical Music Festival of Portogruaro", one of the most important festivals in Europe. In this occasion he played the "Ebony Concert" by Stravinsky, beside world-known soloists as Enrico Bronzi, Roberto Piano and Alessandro Carbonare.

In June 2012 he graduated with honors at the Conservatory of Aosta, under the guidance of Lorenzo Micheli.

He continued his studies with Lorenzo Micheli at the Conservatorio della Svizzera Italiana in Lugano, where he obtained his Master degree in Music Performance in 2015. He studied also at the "Segovia Guitar Academy" in Pordenone, where he took classes with Paolo Pegoraro and Adriano Del Sal. Today he is attending the Master in Guitar with Paolo Pegoraro at the Kunst University in Graz.

He attended masterclasses with some of the most important teachers of the world, like David Russell, Zoran Dukic, Carlo Marchione, Marcin Dylla, Judicael Perroy and Matteo Mela.

He is in career as a soloist, but also in a duo with Giacomo Cardelli, cellist.

Marco Musso received a scholarship by the Musical Association De Sono, Turin.
